Commanders Notes:

I have received a starter kit for Sons of AMVETS. The kit explains how to start a Sons Squadron and basic requirements, only 10 Sons of AMVETS are needed to charter a Sons Squadron. Sons of AMVETS are as the name implies, and is a subordinate organization of AMVETS that works in conjunction with AMVETS and sponsor Post. If anyone is interested in chartering a Sons Squadron please call Post 51 Commander, Bill Forry at (920) 559-8019. Remember 10 Sons of AMVETS are needed to be chartered.

Please remember Veterans Day Ceremony on Monday 12 November 2018 (10 AM) at Sturgeon Bay High School and upcoming Breakfast with Santa at Reedsville Middle School on 02 December 2018, hosted by AMVETS Post 1032 Reedsville.

We also welcome NEW members. Post members are encouraged to please bring a perspective NEW member to a Post meeting and introduce them to the AMVET family and learn what AMVETS is about.

Post Past Happenings:

- A. We are always well represented at Third District, Door County Veterans Council and SEC meetings.
- B. We had a wonderful installation banquet back in June with several state dignitaries in attendance.
- C. White Clover sales went well with everyone chipping in and doing their share of volunteer hours.
- D. As usual we had a grand total of 4 AMVETS that marched or rode in the Egg Harbor 4th of July parade. You have to put the parade on your 2019 calendars so we have more options.
- E. The fair stand was again a success, special thank you to members of the local Knights of Columbus that volunteered to help us.
- F. The fair social was again a huge success and everyone feels more socials are required to have a strong and active membership.
- G. The AMVETS had a crew cooking for the annual Coast Guard picnic held at Sawyer Park.
- H. Several members worked and some played in our annual golf outing held at 27 Pines.
- I. The post was well represented at the State Campout held at Quietwoods South.
