Networking From the Commander

Making time to attend various veterans activities and area events can benefit you, the post, and those you talk to. During these fast approaching winter months try to push yourself out the door and break bread with other veterans, attend events locally, and where ever your travels find you. Networking is helping our Post as we become known for good works and quality events. Keeping active keeps us healthy mentally too!

Consider meeting for breakfast at Leo's on Thursday mornings after 7:30 am when other veterans in Greenville meet there. On Oct 13th Dennis and I attended a 8:30 am breakfast at Angels on John Street in Appleton and had some great conversations with area Veterans. They meet every other Saturday so mark your calendars and come meet up with some great people on Oct 27th! If you have other eat and meets you attend please share them at our next meeting and let's get them on our calendar.

Please keep promoting our post by taking up tasks and wearing your post hats, pins, and shirts at events which really can give cause for conversations and help promote us. Helping Veterans is our #1 priority regardless what organizations we belong to. Working with other organizations can foster quality events with us working together in meeting the same goal!

Networking is important in promoting Americanism and helps us do the programs that fulfill our AMVETS motto. It means attending events and promoting veterans causes. It means taking part in breakfasts, lunches and dinners with fellow veterans. We will not forget our sick, hospitalized, and homebound! Paying it forward, sponsoring, and mentoring those who currently serve. If you hear or receive information on any event or local issue bring it to the AMVETS table.

Invite a veteran to our October Meeting. We will begin with a social at 6:30 pm. Meeting begins at 7pm at Greenville Town hall.

P.S. One of our newest members, Joe Eiting, recruited five new members this summer and received a Green Hat recognition coin! He will be submitted into the 2019 National AMVETS Drawing to win a trip. Great achievement, Thank you Joe! Hoorah!

Happy Birthday to these members:
